Old Business

1. Seasonal flag: Spring flag has been donated.
2. Publicity: We can use the public calendar at the library, e-mail Donna Dunlop- Jessica has the address.
3. Movie equipment-- DVD player and sound unit have been purchased (approx $100) to be kept in new cabinet in dining room.
4. Mah Jongg set has been purchased, at a cost of $84.95

5. New cabinet for sewing and card supplies has arrived-- cost $650.

A new sewing machine has been purchased for the Center. Allita will give lessons to persons wishing to use it.

6. Closets and storage areas have been cleaned and organized by Lillian, Janet and Allita. New shelves will be installed in the barn. Items used occasionally will be marked and stored in the barn.

New Business:

1. The rules for students on school suspension programs do not have use of the kitchen-- this rule has not changed. Jessica will remind them of this.

2. Pool table was left uncovered over weekend. Use of the table is designated. Room will be locked. Key at front desk.

3. A Volunteer meeting has been scheduled for Feb. 11th at 12:30. A notice will be posted.

4. Discussion of bathroom alarm and how to open door in an emergency.

Programs:

1. Jewelry making sign up sheet to determine interest. Classes will be limited to 10-12 people at a cost of $5-$10 for material . (to make a pair of ear rings)

2. Cooking class, or demonstrations needs further research.

3. Marklin program not determined yet. Suggested we should ask PolkaDots if they could provide a program.

4. Music Program:

Suggestions-- sing-along, dancing lessons, school chorus, Needs further investigation.

Citizens Forum:

Merle Dustin would like to see a Dutch door in kitchen. Marilyn will inquire how people who work in kitchen often feel about it. Jessica said it would be extremely expensive.

Lillian Landry--- She has rods for curtains to darken dinning room for movies. Material is in containers in the barn.

Allita Paine asked if the money collected in donation box downstairs by people in senior programs is in a separate fund. Jessica said it goes into a revolving fund, but she keeps a separate record of income and expenses for senior programs.

Jessica Bailey Has been contacted by person with player piano, it needs some repair and tuning. Council voted 5-1 against acquiring piano, but felt that we needed more information.

Other Business:

Next Meeting on February 25,2013.

Adjourn:

Joanne moved to adjourn, seconded by Judy.
Motion carried.
